THE BOOK NOOK

by Sharon Raney Streitt

New On the Shelf at PSGS Library:

Erie Co. New York History. 1876. by Crisfield Johnson.

This is one of the many county histories which were published at the time of the Centennial of American Independence. Like most of these works, it has a very limited index and much of the material is drawn from other printed works and newspapers of the era, therefore family information should be documented and/or supported by additional sources before accepted. However, there is much valuable information and historical background in this type of book--don't overlook them. This particular history does not contain specific biographies, but it does have a lot of historical background material plus many mentions of early residents of the county. (On loan to PSGS by Ruth Strube.)

Remember When. Compiled by M. N. Longeteig and R. Miller.

This is an interesting collection of historical and biographical information and photos relating to homesteading on Idaho's Nezperce Prairie after 1895. Much of the material is drawn from newspapers of Nezperce and Lewiston, Idaho; cemetery inscriptions of Lewis, Nezperce and Idaho counties; and interviews with area residents. The book is only partially indexed so a careful reading is required. (Donated to PSGS Library by Cindy Spore.)

Topographical Dictionary of Ireland. by Samuel Lewis. 1837. Volumes 1 and 2.

These 2 volumes serve as a guide to the counties; cities; boroughs; corporate, market and post towns; parishes and villages of Ireland. Included are historical and statistical descriptions (from 1837, remember) and an appendix describing the electoral boundaries of the boroughs--a handy tool for pinpointing your locations in Ireland. (PSGS Club Purchase.)

Special Review

Our French-Canadian Ancestors. (First Edition). 1983. Compiled by Father Gerard Lebel, translated and enlarged by Thomas J. LaForest. 233 pages, illustrated, indexed.

(Donated to P.S.G.S. Library by the publisher--LISI Press, P. O. Box 1063, Palm Harbor, FL 33563. Copies available for $10.50 + $1.50 postage.)

This book, originally published in French under the name Nos Ancetres, contains biographical sketches of 24 of the oldest of the families who settled French Canada (New France). Each sketch includes a bibliography of source references.

The translator, Mr. LaForest, has also included some background information on New France aimed especially for American readers who might not be familiar with French-Canadian history.

This first volume of a proposed series presents genealogical information on the following: Nicolas Audet; Damien Berube; Pierre Blais; Pierre Blanchet; Guillaume Couture; Gregoire Deblois; Antoine Dionne; Julien Fortin; the Gagnon ancestors; Antoine Lacasse; Francois Lavergne; Nicolas Leroy; Etienne Lessard; Robert Levesque; Nicolas Paquin; Pierre Paradis; Leonard Pilote; Jean-Baptiste Pothier; Rene Rheaume; Pierre Rondeau; Simon Savard; Etienne Trudeau; Paul Vachon; and Nicolas Veilleux.

Also included is a bibliography of 121 references, 16 maps, a glossary, and an index of more than 800 names.

Look for this on the shelf at P.S.G.S. Library.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? The surname of the present royal family in England (Windsor) has undergone several changes in the years since 1701 when the obscure German family took over the throne of England. At that time the Hanover family, as they were called in England, really belonged to an off-shoot of the Guelph family who had been rulers since the 12th century in Brunswick-Luneberg. As such they belonged to the House of Brunswick. However, this all went by the boards during World War I when King George V and his government decided to cut all ties with German surnames, and became the House of Windsor. (Extracted from Kings and Queens of England and Great Britain, by Eric Delderfield.)

GLEBE HOUSE. This is the new headquarters of the National Genealogical Society at 4527 17th Street, North, in Arlington, Virginia. The interesting octagonal shaped structure was built in the mid-nineteenth century, as an addition to the 1820 house which had been built on the foundations of the original 1775 dwelling. Glebe is another term for a parsonage. It was attached to the historic Fairfax parish church in Arlington.

CENSUS MICROFILM RENTAL. Censuses from 1790 through 1910, Revolutionary War pension applications, and compiled military service records on microfilm may be rented for $2.25 per roll through local libraries. This is under a contract with National Archives. Contact Census Microfilm Rental Program, P.O. Box 2840, Hyattsville, MD 20784.

MARYLAND GENEALOGIES. A new quarterly magazine dealing with what was originally Frederick County, now comprising Montgomery, Washington, Allegany, Garrett and parts of Carroll County and the District of Columbia will be available starting in January 1985. For information contact Donna Valley Russell, C.G., 709 East Main St., Middletown, MD 21769.

KENTUCKY GENEALOGISTS. A new edition of Who's Who in Kentucky Genealogy will soon be out. This will list persons doing serious research on Kentucky genealogy, persons who have written articles or books on the subject, or those who have done other work in the field. If you qualify, send SASE to Michael L. Cook, C.G., Preparation Editor, 3318 Wimberg Ave., Evansville, IN 47712 by December 31, 1984.

MEDALS FOR UNION SOLDIERS. In 1866 the West Virginia Legislature struck 26,099 medals for distribution to Union soldiers who fought in West Virginia regiments. Nearly 5200 remain in filing cabinets waiting to be claimed by heirs. Documentation establishing a line of descent must be provided. A list of unclaimed medals can be obtained from the current West Virginia History, Volume 45. Write Department of Culture and History, Cultural Center, Capitol Complex, Charleston, WV 25305 by April 12, 1985.

AFTER THE HOLOCAUST. More than 1,400 volumes of mortgages were destroyed in the San Francisco fire of 1906. To re-establish the records, the state legislature passed a law whereby alleged property owners could file an affadavit identifying themselves as legal owners of the property. If there were no counterclaims, the court issued a final decree to quiet the title. The Utah Genealogical Society is now microfilming these records, known as the McEnerney papers, which contain approximately 50,000 cases dealing with early California names, dates and places. The records will be available on interlibrary loan through the LDS Branch Library system.

UNION CEMETERY, KANSAS CITY. Anyone with ancestors buried in this cemetery, who is willing to share information, should contact Marian Lacy, Chairman, Genealogy Committee, Union Cemetery Society, 2727 Main St., Suite 300, Kansas City, MO 64108.
