CHILDREN IN GENEALOGY. A book, "Who Do You Think You Are?: Digging for Your Family Roots," by Suzanne Hilton (Westminster Press, Philadelphia 1976) is a good guide for children interested in genealogy. Also "The Brown Paper School Presents My Backyard History Book" by David L. Weitzman (Little, Brown, Boston 1975). Boy Scouts may earn a merit badge in genealogy.

PUBLISHED FAMILY HISTORIES. Genealogies in the Library of Congress, the microfilm catalog at LDS libraries, or the Dictionary Catalog of the Local History and Genealogy Division of the New York Public Library may be consulted to find out if your family has a history in book form.

BLIND AND DEAF GENEALOGISTS. There is a genealogical library to serve blind, deaf or persons with motor difficulties such as cerebral palsy and arthritis. Address is: Genealogy Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 4176 English Oak Drive, Doraville GA 30340. Telephone number is (404) 449-1533.

EUROPEAN CENSUSES. Microfilm copies of census schedules for many western European countries is available for use in LDS branch libraries and the Salt Lake City library. A book covering 30 countries on the European continent, "In Search of Your European Roots: A Complete Guide to Tracing Your Ancestors in Every Country in Europe," by Angus Baxter (Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert, Baltimore MD 21202) is available. The book describes the availability of various kinds of genealogical records, whether you are searching by mail or in person.

SCHWEITZER ON SOUTH CAROLINA. Dr. George Schweitzer has recently published a book dealing with all kinds of records, county information, bibliographies, societies etc. of the State of South Carolina. His address is 7914 Gleason, C-1136, Knoxville TN 37919.

FRAGMENTS OF 1890 CENSUS. Although most of this census was destroyed by fire, there are fragments containing 6,160 names from the following states: Alabama, Georgia, Illinois, Minnesota, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, South Dakota, Texas and the District of Columbia.

COUNTY MAP CHECKLIST. The Library of Congress can furnish a Checklist of 19th Century U.S. County Maps. These maps for the period 1850-1900 show landowner's names.

Zimmerman and Marion Wolfert (Baltimore MD Genealogical Publishing Co., 1985). The second is "The Salzburger Saga: Religious Exiles and Other Germans Along the Savannah," by George Fenwick Jones (Athens, University of Georgia Press, 1984). This book tells of the expulsion of 20,000 Protestants from Salzburg and the Ebenezer settlement, their subsequent home in Georgia.

FAMILY ASSOCIATIONS. The annual May/June issue of the Genealogical Helper includes a directory in two parts: (a) List of family associations, including names and addresses of one or two officers, data on reunions; and (b) a list of family periodicals, giving addresses of editors, subscription rates, and frequency of publication.
