SEMINAR 1988

"Family Tree Climbing Can Be Fun" is the general topic of the 1988 Seminar to be presented by the Evertons, publishers of The Genealogical Helper. The date is October 20, 1988. The place is St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 700 Callahan Drive in Bremerton. Hours will be from 1 to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. Registration will start at 12 noon.

Subjects to be covered are:

Where to Search for Vital Records before Mandatory Record Keeping Research in the Southern States of the U.S.

                    
Probate Records

Cost of the seminar is $18 per person. A fee of $24 will be charged at the door he day of the Seminar. Marlys Marrs is chairman of the event and has announced the following committees and chairmen: Door Prizes (Jackie Horton), Kitchen (Margaret Lentz), Hostess (Yula Mae Harris), Cookies (Nellie Johnson), Set up (Gordon Penland), Registration (Mary Penland), Sales (Lillian Harvey), Surname Exchange (Rose Mary O'Brien). Many others have agreed to work on the committees but MORE VOLUNTEERS WILL BE WELCOME. Call Marlys at 373-6945.

Cookies and coffee will be served during the day. Club members are asked to donate two dozen cookies. Again, please call Marlys and volunteer to bring cookies.

Everyone attending the Seminar will receive a one-year subscription to The Genealogical Helper. A 15% discount will be granted on Everton's large selection of genealogical supplies. These include genealogical books, forms, microfiche readers, magnifiers etc. Orders must be placed on the day of the Seminar.

Advertising in The Genealogical Helper will be reduced by 50% to all attendees at the Seminar. This includes entries in the Computerized "Roots" Cellar, Computerized Family File, and the Computerized Pedigree Library. These too must be submitted the day of the Seminar.

Everton has a total of 600,000 ancestor-name entries in their three data banks. These entries include the names and addresses of submitters. The data banks will be at the disposal of persons attending the Seminar.

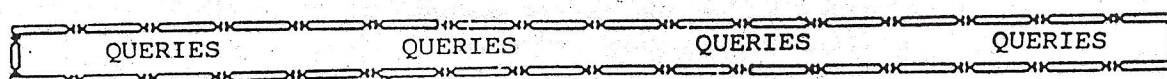

Participants are urged to bring their own family group sheets and pedigree charts for comparison with Everton's files.

As seating is limited, it is advised that persons register early.

1988 RAFFLE. The yearly club raffle will be held at the same time as the Seminar. Linnie Griffin, Ways and Means chairman, will be mailing raffle tickets to all members. First prize will be a $50 grocery gift certificate. Other prizes will include dinner at the Port Orchard home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jeffers, a flower arrangement, etc.

CENSUS FILMS. Deadline for ordering U.S. census films is August 10, according to Marlys Marrs. Money in the film fund will allow her to order 25 films. Call her at 373-6945.

A THANK-YOU. Rose Mary O'Brien, who lost her husband recently, wants to thank club members for all the cards, memorials and other expressions of sympathy which were extended to her and her family.

CHUMLEY     Want to exchange information on these names.
ECKERT     Shirley Hicks, 1125 N. Broadway, #G-106, Escondido CA 92026
McHUGO     Telephone # (619) 745-1295.

GREEN STAMPS. If you have any green stamps lying around the house, will you please donate them to the club? Some books of the stamps were found recently in the club "archives", and can be traded for items for club use. Green stamps are not allowed in Washington State but are often given to residents shopping out-of-state.

OUT-OF-PRINT GENEALOGIES. The Library of Congress offers a free pamphlet listing out-of-print genealogies. They also offer a copy service. Write: Library of Congress, Photoduplication Service, 10 First St. SE, Washington DC 20540.

SAND POINT CAFETERIA. The Seattle P-I recently revealed a little-known secret which will be of interest to genealogists visiting the Archives at Sand Point. There is a place to eat at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration at 7600 Sand Point Way. The NOAA Cafeteria, like the cafeteria in the downtown Federal Office building, is open to the general public. A complete breakfast can be had for 99 cents, the PI reports. A daily lunch special will cost around $3.25. The PI restaurant critic, Don Carter, reports the food is good, and the menu offers a wide range of choices.

To find the Sand Point cafeteria, check the map just inside the NOAA grounds. The cafeteria is in Building 2, and the best place to park is Lot B. Take the winding ramp down the hill just east of Building 9, and you will see the tall, mostly glass cafeteria to the right. Bon appetit!

FEDERATION OF GENEALOGICAL SOCIETIES

GLASNOST IN GENEALOGY. A recent meeting between officers of the Federation and a representative from the Soviet Union, Ludmilla Selivanova, may pave the way for Americans to explore their genealogical roots in Russia. Ms Selivanova is head of the Department of Foreign Relations of the Main Archival Administration in Moscow. She told the group that the Soviet archival system is composed of some 3,500 distinct archives administered from Moscow, divided into republics, provinces and localities, plus 11 central state archives devoted to different subjects. These archives are not yet equipped to handle genealogical queries, although they have received some and requested this meeting with the Americans to pave the way for future exchanges.

NAME CHANGE. The archives at Sand Point will henceforth be known as National Archives-Pacific Northwest Region (formerly known as National Archives-Seattle Branch).

UTAH GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY MICROFILMING. The society is now microfilming in the following locations (story datelined in May 1988):

- Alabama - Confederate Pensions at the Alabama State Archives (completed).
- Alabama - Dallas and Loundes counties (in progress)
- Georgia - Atlanta branch of National Archives, 24 million WWI draft cards (completed alphabetically up to California)
- Illinois - Death records to 1938 at Illinois State Archives
- Illinois - Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago, 444 Catholic churches and cemeteries
- Illinois - Hancock county probates
- Illinois - Chicago branch of National Archives, 1-1/2 million WPA naturalization cards for Cook county, northern Illinois, northeastern Indiana, eastern Iowa, southeastern Wisconsin (completed)
- Indiana - Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Indianapolis and Diocese of Evansville (completed)

SAVED FROM THE FIRE! Milwaukee WI court officials were stopped by genealogists and the Milwaukee Historical Society from burning a ton of record books containing jury lists, tax documents and other court records. Wisconsin state law grants Milwaukee county, because of its size, an exemption from requirements governing the retention of records. Members of a local genealogical society were able to carry away records on a Saturday before further disposal. As it is, some records will be missing as they were all ready burned. An official of the court has announced a procedure will be worked out to notify interested persons whenever records are going to be destroyed.

RAILROAD RECORDS. During the early part of the century some 2-1/4 million people worked for the railroads. In the 1930's the Railroad Retirement Board was created. Write to them at 884 Rush St., Chicago IL 60611. Some of the information they have on file includes: applications for employment, applications for employment annuity, employee registration, certifications for termination of service. These records will include full name and date of birth, place of birth, parents' names, mother's maiden name, social security number, occupational title etc. It is helpful if you know the social security number and/or railroad retirement number.

PENNSYLVANIA. Each county or township in Pennsylvania is supposed to have a local historian. Write to County Historian, C/o Courthouse (of appropriate county), County Seat. Include SASE. The same applies to New York State.

CHARGES FOR VITAL RECORDS INFORMATION IN VARIOUS STATES

This information was compiled by Rose Mary O'Brien, Special Projects Chairman. Counties, especially in the southern states, have gaps in their records. In that case, checking with the state itself is advisable. This data is a supplement to the information contained in "The Handy Book for Genealogists," which lists counties and the information they provide. NOTE: Fees charged by counties may differ from those charged by states.

Dates listed give the EARLIEST date the state has in its records.

BOOK REVIEW

Bice Family History, 1800-1987, by Marlys Marrs (Review by Madelyn Cataldo)

This book is a 361-page labor of love, starting with George Washington Bice, born in 1820 in the State of Pennsylvania. He married Leah Isabella Cornman in 1842 and from this marriage evolves the Bice Family Tree, including all known members in 1987 from the East Coast to the West Coast.

Along with pertinent genealogical information, many family pictures are included, as well as newspaper items and obituaries. Each chapter is devoted to one of the nine children reared by George and Leah Bice.

Included are some delightful memories written by grandchildren of their grandparents. Several letters are in the book. One chapter is devoted to Bice family members that served as law officers. Another chapter gives credit to all the Bices who have served in the armed forces.

The book is clearly indexed with each person assigned a number showing his or her place in the family tree. The outside cover of the book shows the old family homestead. The book is a three-ring binder which allows insertion of added information.

Allied family names in the book include:

Bray	Auchstetter	Bendickson
Buckingham	Carney	Dana
Gibson	Gordon	Holtquist
Pribbenow	Schloe	Solberg
Solin	Sullivan	Swartz
Trusty	Wiltse

Anyone interested in obtaining a copy of the book should contact Marlys at 373-6945 or 4430 Pine Avenue NE, Bremerton WA 98310.

GRAVEYARD VANDALISM. Another example of this favorite "sport" is contained in an AP wire story "Martha Foster, please claim your gravestone." Police in Kansas City MO have a tombstone in their property room that was dumped in someone's front yard last October. They have been unable to locate where the stone belongs. It reads: "Martha J. Foster. Wife of E.C. Foster. Born April 10, 1832. Died March 3, 1879."
