Many of these are not state-wide census. Some are county census and for different counties in different years. The state archives, state historical society or state genealogical society should be able to tell you what census were taken, when, and where they are located.

A WARNING. The president of the Genealogical Forum in Portland says the club library is losing materials to theft at such a rate that they are considering closing the library unless there are two people to staff the library at all times. This reflects the experience of the Family History Library in Salt Lake. All goes to prove our contention there are more "crooks" in genealogy than in professional gambling.

SWISS RESEARCH. The Consulate General of Switzerland warns that "only Swiss citizens may apply for records of civil status for themselves or their family members. Each application must be justified and a full power of attorney may be required." The Port Townsend Jefferson Co. newsletter suggests the services of a genealogist in Switzerland when searching for family members of Swiss descent.

NEW YORK RESEARCH. The state will only search for births from 1881-1937, deaths and marriages from 1880-1937. No others need apply. Write to NY State Dept. of Health, Vital Records Service, Genealogy Unit, Corning Tower Bldg., Empire State Plaza, Albany NY 12237 for form and information. (Sioux Falls SD gen soc)

MISSISSIPPI RESEARCH. The old story "due to declining state revenues" applies in Mississippi which is imposing a research fee of $10 per hour for out-of-state requests. Paid in advance, regardless of success. Write Archives & Library Div., PO Box 571, Jackson MS 39205. Check payable to MS Dept. of Archives & History.

GEORGIA RESEARCH. The Georgia Dept. of Archives & History no longer answers mail inquiries requesting specific information. They suggest a visit to the Archives or contacting a professional genealogist.

SWEDISH-FINNISH SOCIETY. This new group in Seattle can be contacted at 7400 Woodlawn Ave., Seattle 98115. They have announced they are interested in helping genealogists.

FORTS DALLES, SIMCOE AND COLVILLE. Steven C. Plucker, PO Box 1212, Rocklin CA 95677 is interested in information concerning these forts in Washington and Oregon. Or call him at 916-624-5214.

AGE SEARCH FUNCTION. The U.S. Department of Commerce announced it has moved the U.S. Census Bureau's age search function to Jeffersonville IN. The address is: Bureau of the Census, PO Box 1545, Jeffersonville IN 47131. Form BC-600 is required to obtain this material. The branch was formerly located in Pittsburg KS. (Clallam Co.)

RESEARCHER IN NORTH GERMANY. The So. King Co. Newsletter reports on a person who will do research in North Germany. His charges are $10 an hour, plus mileage plus postage. He is: Hans-Joachim Hinners, Wurster Strasse 390b, W-4850, Bremerhaven-Weddewarden, Germany.

INTER-LIBRARY LOANS. The American Family Records Association has a catalog of their entire collection available for loan. The cost is $5, but it would make a handy home desk reference. The address is PO Box 15505, Kansas City MO 64106. Use standard ALA form at the library, and state that the material you are requesting is available from AFRA. (So King Co)

TIP!!! When a query letter comes back marked "forwarding order expired," don't give up. Try addressing a letter to OCCUPANT, using the address on the returned letter. The Post Office won't return it to you, and the present occupant may have some information as to where your addressee has moved. Always send an SASE; and even offer to take a collect call. (So King Co)

OHIO RESEARCH. Send the name of your Ohio settler (one per letter) to: State Library of Ohio, 65 S. Front St., Columbus OH 43215. They will research the name, send the number of pages they find, and the costs to copy them. (So King Co)

GEORGIA ARCHIVES. Effective 01 January 1991, the Georgia State Archives ceased responding to mail inquiries. Budget shortfalls, they say. (Wenatchee WA)

THE DEATH OF GENEALOGY? (From Wenatchee WA)

A recent article in the NGS Newsletter "Adoption Secrecy Laws Threaten Death of Genealogy," by Bruce M. Claggett, describes how genealogical research, whether for medical purposes, sociological studies, or hobby purposes is becoming increasingly impaired with each passing generation by secrecy laws. In most states secrecy laws have been adopted in this century which cause the original birth record of an adopted child to be replaced by a bogus birth record.

The bogus record names as the parents of the child its newly adoptive parents, and does not reveal in any way that they are not the birth parents. Thus, a researcher has no way of knowing that the apparent ancestry of that child as shown in public records is bogus. Since about 2% of the children born in this country each year end up being adopted, a growing proportion of our population has an ancestry that is incorrect.

The effect is similar to compound interest in reverse, Attorney Claggett says, in that in another four generations or so, about half the ancestry of the American population will be phony. This is an Orwellian practice, he says. Surely all people, whether adopted or not, have a right to be able to trace their ancestry in public records.

ANOTHER COMPLICATION IN GENEALOGY. Genealogical publications from all over the country are running cute poems about another problem that may drive genealogists up the wall in the coming years: The child's father may be listed as Sperm Bank #9! Now, that is a real problem.
