LIBRARY ROOM

PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE note that we need a Librarian. Marlys Marrs has done a tremendous job of reorganizing which required many, many hours of work. We owe her our thanks.....now we need someone to keep it in working operation. Our library has developed into an outstanding feature and is very busy. Our membership now totals 94 .....it takes only one evening for things to become "undone". All of us can help by please returning books to their proper places. But most important we need a Librarian....maybe two or three could work together. You would be surprised how much one can learn from this and it can be fun!!

New purchases by our Club and donations by Jim Hanf, Marlys Marrs, Maxine Beaver and Ida Tevault:

1. 1850 New York Census Index (club).
2. The Pioneer (quarterly on Penn.), Vol. I 1976 (I.T.).
3. The Stickney Genealogy from 1869 (M.B.).
4. International "Who's Who" 1970-71 (J.H.).
5. The Annals of America Vol. I 1493-1754.
6. Pennsylvania Area Keys for Cumberland, Greene & Wash. Counties.
7. Genealogical Reader Northeastern U.S. and Canada by Norman E. Wright (M.M.).
8. Ohio Area Key by C.W. Flavell & F. Clint (M.M.).
9. Genealogical Register of Plymouth Families by W.T. Davis (M.M.).
10. Marriage Records in Iowa of Chickasaw, Dickinson, Story and Webster Counties (M.M.).

CLUB CORNER

Mormon Branch Library

The day we have all be waiting for has arrived!!! As announced at our July meeting, the Mormon Branch Library at 2225 Perry Avenue, in Bremerton, is now in operation. Hours are 1-9 pm Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and 9am-5 pm on Saturday. It is suggested you use the South entrance and to call before going to make sure there is a Librarian on duty. (Chapel 479-9370)

Problem Solving Seminars

At the beginning of the year we were informed that problem solving seminars had been arranged with Mr. Genealogy (Arthur Fiske of Seattle). The response has been most disappointing. If the turnout does not improve we will have to postpone this arrangement. The next one scheduled is for September 25.

For all of our many new members, these seminars work such: We have a roundtable setup, each person explains his problem to Mr. Fiske (he suggests you have at least a pedigree chart available). He will give you a list of resources to check and at the next session (usually two months later) you bring back your results. At this time Mr. Fiske will make further suggestions. This service is just $10 for two sessions; a big bargain for 30 years experience.

Cemetery Transcribing and Courthouse Extracting

Our Chairman Marlys Marrs is busy organizing this committee and plotting the cemeteries in our county on a map. She would greatly appreciate volunteers to be in charge of the various areas: the North End, Central, Bremerton, South and Poulsbo. These people would be responsible for finding members to copy the cemeteries in their area.

Also needed are volunteers to tackle the courthouse; possibly one for the births, deaths and marriages and another for the land, naturalization, etc. These people would be <sup>in</sup> charge of getting work parties organized for the extracting.

Would you volunteers please call Marlys Marrs after 6 pm at 373-6945. For those in the North End, you may call Roseann Mitchell at 779-4247. THANKS!!

KITSAP COUNTY CEMETERIES

A few cemeteries in our county have already been done; a couple have been published in our FAMILY BACKTRACKING. The Tacoma Genealogical Society Bulletin has published four cemeteries in our county. We have copies of these in our Club Library and will gladly check for a SASE; we won't duplicate these in our bulletin.

1. Breidablek, Evergreen Cemetery, located 3 miles north on Hiway 3 from Poulsbo. Copied by Mrs. Clifford Aarness, Mrs. Robert Theel, and Mrs. Richard Gustin in 1970.
2. Burley Cemetery, located in the extreme south part of our county, about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile north of the Pierce Co. line. Donated by Graecia Britten.
3. Seabeck Cemetery, located near Bremerton. Transcribed by Mr. Fred Just.
4. Tracyton Cemetery, located about 1 mile from Tracyton on the left side of the Fairgrounds Road. Copied by Mrs. Clifford Aarness and Mrs. Richard Gustin in 1970.

SURNAMES

The period following the Norman Conquest of England in 1066 was marked by another innovation, the adoption of the use of surnames. The development of surnames was a practical necessity. With the widening of interests, from interests involving only a local community to interests involving a whole country, and in our own day, to a considerable extent, the whole world, new means of distinguishing names have become more and more indispensable.

The first source of surnames are suffixes. Among the Scandinavian peoples the suffix is - son, Olson (Olaf & son), Anderson (Andrew's son). Among the Scotch and Irish it is - mac, MacDonald. Among the English it is - fitz, like in Fitzgerald, or Fitzsimmons, meaning the son's of.

The second source of surnames is from the country or locality with which a man is associated. Scott is said to be an English name applied to a Scotchman. Champneys is a name applied to a native of Champagne. Other names of this kind are Brett-Britton (native of Brittany), Picard-Power (Picardy), Loring (Lorraine), Bullen (Boulogne), Blass (Blois), Loving (Lou Vain), Sessions (Soissons), Turney (Tournay).

A third principle source of modern surnames is to be found in names of occupation. The number of names from this source is even greater than appears at first sight. There are Smith, Butcher, Carpenter, Miller, Taylor and their like, now applied utterly without relation to occupation, but forming the most widely used type of surname.

A fourth general source of surnames is to be found in nicknames. The word nickname itself, from earlier "an eke name" originally being the equivalent of surname. Features of dress are expressed by Capron (hood), Burden (staff), Motley (fool's costume).

Many of the names of Celtic origin are interesting because the original meaning is so completely lost sight of, as in the Welsh Gough and Roe, both meaning "red", Bain, Wynne and Gwyne all meaning "white", Glass, Lloyd and Floyd meaning "gray", Sayee is "Saxon", and the Irish Kennedy is "Ugly Head". In many cases the foreign name is translated Schumacher-Shoemaker; Neuman-Newman, Schuartz-Black.

Surely the ends of the earth are brought together in the words that form the American surnames.

NAVY YARD POST #110 G.A.R.

The Grand Army of the Republic (G.A.R.) was an American patriotic organization, consisting of United States armed forces veterans of the Civil War. The G.A.R. admitted any member of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who had served between April 12, 1861, and April 9, 1865, and had been honorably discharged, and also members of State regiments who had been called into service. The organization was founded for the commemoration of dead comrades and the practice of fraternity and mutual assistance. The organization was responsible for passage of the Disability Act of 1890, which doubled the pension roll; it also established old soldiers' homes, and provided care and education for soldiers' orphans.

On March 23, 1902, a meeting was held in Bremerton for the purpose of organizing a local chapter of the G.A.R. The following Civil War veterans were present: W. J. Galbraith, A. D. Hartman, J. R. Bell, J. H. Nibbe, Warren Smith, F. E. Denzel, B. F. Whitaker, M. R. Brewster, G. W. Sutton, A. W. Peterson, Thomas Buckley, T. F. Mahan, Phil. A. Wood, Charles Anderson, M. Coltenbaugh, Chas. Draper, Cyrus Thomas, C. D. Benson, M. McFarland, and M. V. Hartwell.

On March 30, 1902, a second organizational meeting was held and the following veterans were added to the roll: A. W. Stiles, H. R. Gale, H. Brintnell, A. F. Haynes and M. E. Johnson.

The first officers of Navy Yard Post #110, G.A.R. were:

Post Commander -- H. R. Gale
Sr. Vice Com. -- W. J. Galbraith
Jr. Vice Com. -- M. R. Brewster
Officer of the Day -- J. R. Bell
Quartermaster -- Charles Draper
Chaplain -- A. F. Haynes
Surgeon -- J. H. Nibbe
Adjutant -- T. F. Mahan
Officer of the Guard -- M. E. Johnson

The organization of the post was completed on April 3, 1902, with the installation of the officers.

PORT MADISON CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS

transcribed by Brian Roberts, February 1977

Kane Cemetery at Port Madison is the oldest cemetery on Bainbridge Island. The oldest stone is dated 1867, and there are a number of unmarked graves that could be even older. Although the property is owned by the Free and Accepted Masons, it is a resting place for people of many different associations, religions, and races. The manager is Robert B. Ross of 9638 N.E. Lafayette, Port Madison, a member of the Kitsap County Historical Society who knows a great deal about island history. Several generations of Mr. Ross's own ancestors are buried in the cemetery.

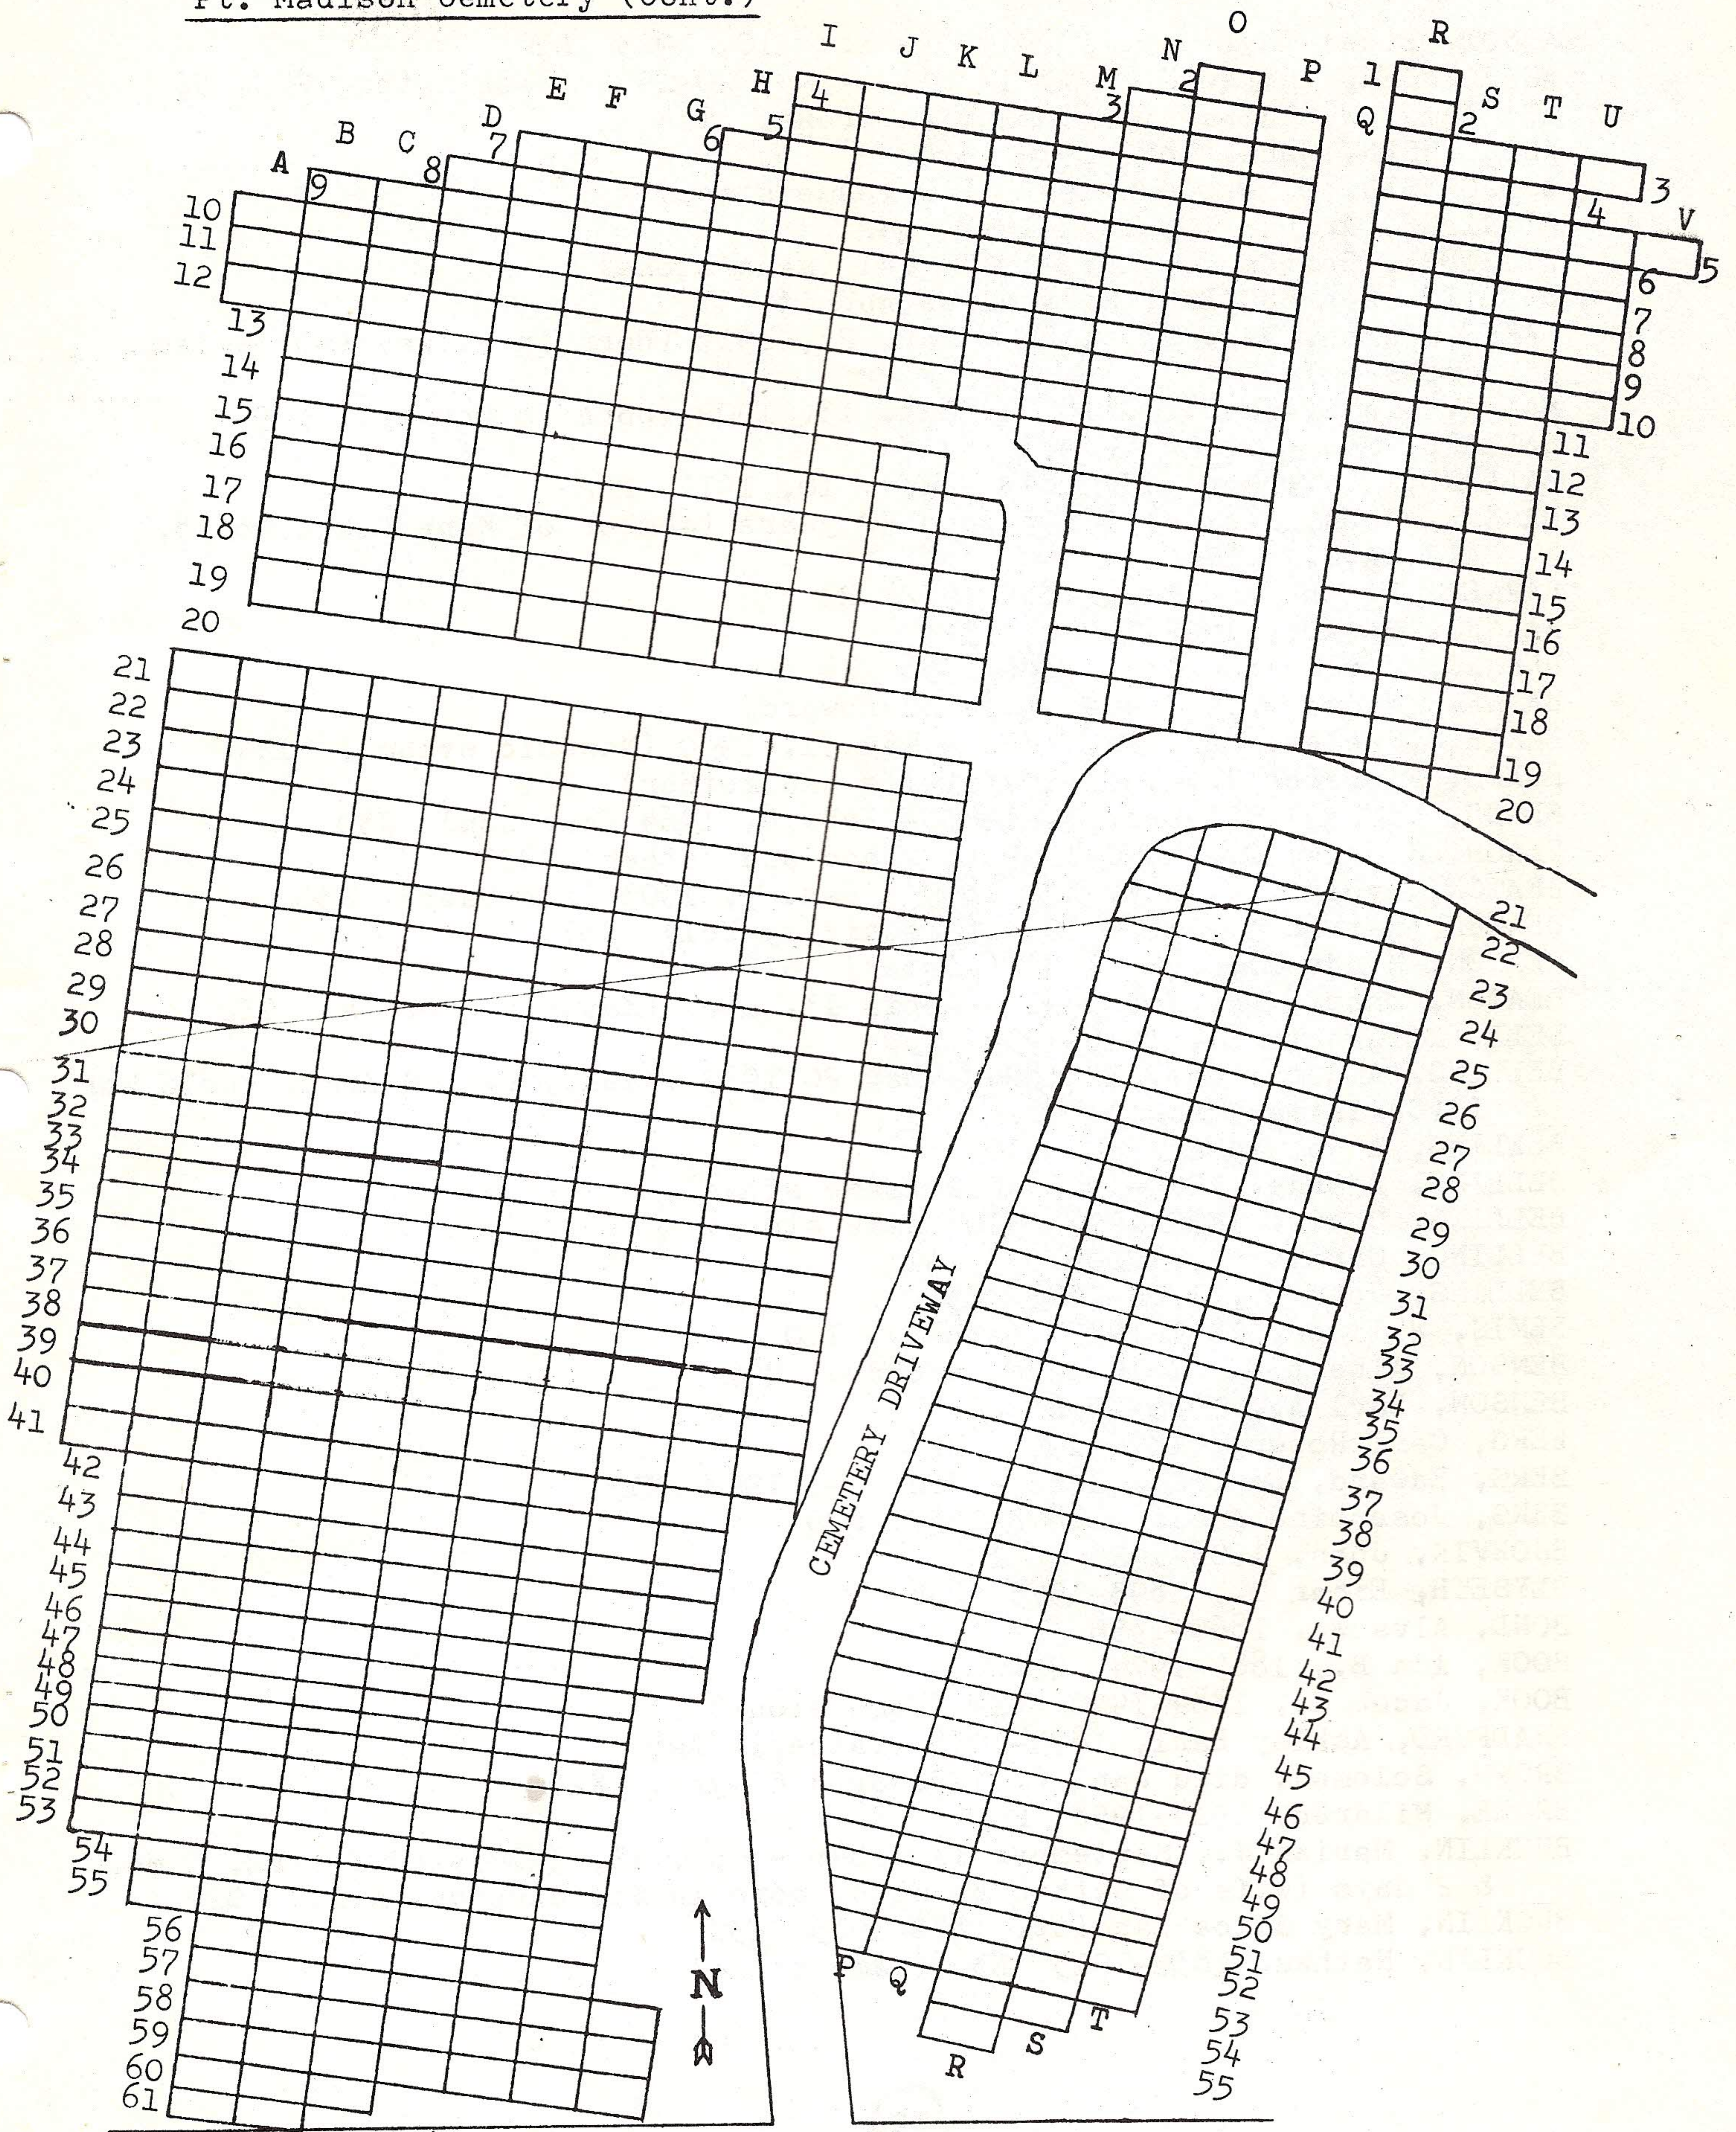

On the next page is a diagram of the cemetery, excluding the part that has not yet been used. The rows and columns are labeled to help in finding the approximate physical location of the stones listed alphabetically below. U3, for instance, means that a grave is in column U, row 3, in the northeast part of the map area.

Stones are listed here by name and dates. Where a stone has additional wording that might be of genealogical value, this is included in parentheses.

MEMBERS' SURNAMES
by Mrs. Nadine Rowan

Only one-fourth of our membership has turned in his (her) pedigree-ancestor charts. Will the other three-fourths please do so as soon as possible?

In our last issue, Vol. II, No. 2, an error was made in Mrs. Beverly Greene's surnames. Please change her CHRISTLER to CRISTLER. We apologize for the mistake and ask that if others are seen to please bring it to either my attention or the editor's Roseann Mitchell. Thank you!
