

Speakers for July, August, and September 2021

Looking forward

July 28th, 2021: Jewell Dunn: Pacific Northwest.

Jewell will talk about Federal, State and local records available in the Pacific Northwest. Mainly in Oregon and Washington. And the importance of Fringe records in the neighboring states.

August 25th, 2021: Winona Laird: Understanding Migration:

Peopled traveled the waterways, trails, to migrate across the United States. Find out Who moved, the reason why they moved. Where did they come from? How did they migrate? Where did they go? All these questions will be answered in this class.

September 22nd, 2021: Steven Morrison: Is It true? Using Manuscripts and Family Records for Genealogical Proof.

To some, family records -including diaries, letters, and personal photographs-may be seen as having little genealogical value. Nothing can be further from the truth! Explore how original information from the Oregon Trail can shine new light on undiscovered facts or family relationships.
